hello
ducks

to these ducks,
the pond is the whole world

it is a self-contained little community.

quack
There's the geeks giggling on the bank

watching the jocks

paddle past like
they own the place

woah, who is this renegade outside the pond-land, huge & threatening

these two rogues
followed us around

but of course they soon slipped back to the pond.

we waved them goodbye

and went out into the wider world.
